RULES FOR THE CONTROL OF BANNED SUBSTANCES
JULY 2004

1. General

The BSAWA prohibits drug abuse (doping practices) in billiards & snooker on the grounds of both fair play and health. Billiards and Snooker players are forbidden to avail themselves of any of the prohibited substances referred to in the BSAWA's Drug Policy or these Rules as "prohibited drugs, even if they consider that neither their sporting performances or their health would be affected. The term drug abuse as adopted in these Rules also covers and prohibits the use of any new substance belonging to specified categories.

2. Principles

2.1 The following categories of conduct are prohibited:

- a) The use by any player of any of the pharmaceutical categories of substances and methods appearing on the list of prohibited agents and methods, as published and amended from time to time by WADA, the BSAWA and/or the IOC, is FORBIDDEN.

The list shall not be exhaustive and may for example merely contain the names of examples of each category of drug for information purposes. Even if the substance is not on the list, drug abuse shall have occurred as a consequence of the use by a player of a substance which does or could have the effect of improving artificially the players physical and/or mental condition and so augmenting the players performance in billiards & snooker.

Unless otherwise stipulated in the list, none of the drugs belonging to a forbidden category may be used. The use of a prohibited drug shall constitute an infringement of the BSAWA's Drug Policy and these Rules regardless of the method of administration and the intent of the user. Blood doping is similarly prohibited.

- b) The use of a substance or substances that might influence the result of an analysis is also prohibited and shall be deemed to be drug abuse.
- c) The assisting or inciting of others to use prohibited drugs is an infringement of the BSAWA Drug Policy and these Rules.

2.2 Should a drug test be administered at any billiards or snooker activity or event, it shall be governed by these Rules.

2.3 The cost of administering the drug test in or out of competition shall be borne by the BSAWA Regions or Affiliates hosting the event, WADA or the appointed SDA by agreement. This shall not include any expenses incurred by a player or nominated representative in attending the testing of a second sample if the first sample testing is deemed positive for banned substances.

The player will be deemed to have recorded a positive result from a drug test, unless in the absolute discretion of the BSAWA, it is considered that the failure to submit to a drug test was due solely to overriding personal circumstances outside the control of the player, who maybe required himself to a rescheduled drug test. The BSAWA shall use its discretion under this Rule sparingly and normally only in circumstances such as debilitating illness, injury or death of a close relative.
